PARKAGE ALONG STREETS AND AVENUES HAS BEEN RAKED AND FREED OF ALL DEBRIS — DO YOUR SHARE.

The citizens of Daytona are to be congratulated upon the appearance of their properties throughout the entire city. There is scarcely a street or avenue that hasn't very recently undergone a raking and cleaning up of all rubbish, and in scores of cases, flowers and shrubbery have been planted adding much to the attractiveness of the surroundings.

Such civic pride is more noticeable to strangers entering a city for the first time than it is to people accustomed to being constantly on the ground.

Another phase of Daytona's attractiveness, and one that is hardly ever thought of by all-year-round residents, is the presence of so many grey squirrels. These little animals have become so thoroughly domesticated here that they will eat from one's hand with apparently no fear of molestation. The tourist population, many of whom have never been close enough to a squirrel to know what it really looks like, marvel at seeing half a dozen of these little animals scampering about the parkage, afraid of nothing.

Since so great a majority of our people have taken the pains to rid the city of everything in the line of refuse matter, it is up to every citizen to help keep the streets free from scrap paper by making use of the rubbish cans provided for that purpose.

M. S. Moore of Pittsburg, Pa., has rented through the agency of A. E. Donnelly the Dr. J. B. Ross residence on Fairview avenue and is occupying it in company with his family.

Mrs. Williams had resided in this locality for about 12 years. Besides her daughter, Mrs. Haigh, she had two sons, J. E. Williams, a well-known business man of Seabreeze, and H. Williams of Jacksonville.

THREE NEW BUNGALOWS

BUILDING ON FIRST STREET
E. S. Hall commenced work Wednesday on the last of the three modern bungalows which he is erecting for rental purposes on his property on First street, between Live Oak and Loomis avenues. Work has been pushed rapidly on the construction of the buildings and the first one is now practically completed, while the second one is well under way. These three attractive bungalows, all of different design, will be quite an addition to that section of the city.

Cheered Too Soon.

The new master on his first day at the school had all the pupils gathered in the hall, where he delivered an address to them, in the course of which he remarked that he did not believe in canes. At this point he was interrupted by ringing cheers from his youthful audience. "A far better thing," he continued, beaming at them through his spectacles, "is a good stout strap of the best leather."

the past two or three years, is receiving a most cordial welcome from her many friends.

Gail Borden has returned from a weeks' hunting trip in North Carolina.

The V. I. A. held its regular meeting at the library rooms on Friday of last week, having been postponed from the previous week. Several were elected for membership, among them being Mrs. John Robinson, Mrs. Mahlon Whittlesey, Mrs. Stanley Carnell, Mrs. Frank Blair, and Mrs. S. S. Lasswell. After the business session those present listened with much interest to the reports of the delegates who were in attendance at the state federation at Lakeland, Mrs. Udera Watson reading extracts from a number of the different addresses made there, and Miss Emma Weatherbee giving a most entertaining account of her impressions of the federation meeting and a personal report made from notes taken at the different sessions, this being most thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Leonard Knox and son, Donald, were hosts at a Thanksgiving dinner given at their attractive home at Mound Grove on Thursday afternoon. Those enjoying their hospitality were Mrs. J. D. Price, Hubert Price, Professor Pinkerton, Mr. and Mrs. V. G. Collis, Josephine and Baby Mark, and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Corrie with their friends, Miss Gedge and Mrs. Clemente Roberts of Daytona.

Mrs. J. D. Price entertained very delightfully at Hammett Home the members of the V. I. A. on Tuesday afternoon from 3 to 6. In the way of a shower for the president, Mrs. Macon Thornton, whose home on Palmetto street had been burned to the ground during the summer, Mrs. Thornton's friends remembered her with gifts of all sorts, both for utility and ornament, but in the most useful housekeeping things. The honoree was much surprised and a merry,

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Witham are here for the winter. Mr. Witham has purchased a lot on the Peninsula on which he expects to build later on.

SMALL CHILD POISONED BY EATING FLY-PAPER

The three and a half-year-old daughter of Oliver Wine of Ormond is in a rather serious condition from poisoning, as a result of the child eating some poisoned fly-paper Wednesday morning. Dr. Roy Howe of this city is in charge of the case.

Ascertain Your Specialty.
Not every man has equal earning ability or financial judgment. But every man has certain talents that may be used to better advantage than they are. Don't try to do the other man's job. Then use a little horse sense and save for the future, or for that enlarged business you are dreaming about.

On the Road to Intemperance.
Testimony in a Chicago court shows that a husband from whom a divorce is desired drank eight or nine whiskeys every morning before breakfast and about thirty more before going to bed. WANTS TO KEEP IN TOUCH WITH THINGS IN DAYTONA

Raymond R. Gracey, writing from Ocean Grove, N. J., in regard to subscription to the Daily News, says:

"I was in Daytona all last winter and would like to return this winter, but cannot do so on account of business. I want to keep in touch with things in Daytona, so wish to take your paper."

Mr. and Mrs. Albert List and Mr. and Mrs. C. Van Nuys of Franklin, Ind., arrived recently and are again located for the winter in Silver Beach lodge on the ocean beach at Daytona Beach.

BIG SWEET POTATO FROM MUNROE & STEVENS FARM

The vegetable display in the window of the office of Lucas, "The Land Man," has been increased, very much increased, by the addition of a single sweet potato from the farm of Munroe & Stevens that tips the scales at 26 pounds and 12 ounces. W. W. Ross, who is in charge of the farm, says he hopes yet to produce one weighing 50 pounds.

DAYTONA WILL PAY BIG SHARE OF THE FEDERAL "WAR TAX"

BANKS, THEATRES, BILLIARD HALLS, ETC., HARDER HIT THAN OTHER BUSINESSES—TO BACCO DEALERS TAXED.

Through the operation of the new federal revenue law, a great deal more money than the average person imagines will be paid to the government by individuals and companies located in Daytona and vicinity. Just how much the annual amount will be it is impossible to accurately estimate at this time, but it may safely be said that it will not be under several thousand dollars. For instance, the local banks, theaters, billiard halls and bowling alleys will have to pay their proprietors' Uncle Sam upwards of one thousand dollars per annum for the privilege of doing business here.

On each and every telegraph and telephone message sent, if it costs 15 cents or more, the sender must pay a tax of one cent. Unless there is a marked decrease locally in the use of these methods of message transmission, the government will get approximately $200 a year from this source.

Each dealer in manufactured tobacco whose sales amount to $200 annually must pay $4.80 tax. There are about 50 dealers here and across the river.

The small tax on chewing gum, perfumes and cosmetics, although theoretically borne by the manufacturers, is actually paid by retail dealers and consumers and will yield considerable revenue.

The emergency revenue act levies taxes upon the following:

Nearly all kinds of insurance, except life and health.

Real estate deeds.

Promissory notes.

Freight and express shipments costing five cents.

Telegrams and telephone calls costing 15 cents.

Power of attorney.

Parlor car and sleeper tickets.

Chewing gum.

Cabaret shows.

Billiard halls and bowling alleys.

Theaters, moving picture shows, circuses, etc.

Banking business, $1.00 on each thousand dollars' capital and surplus.

Commission merchandising.

Beer, ale and porter.

Stock brokerage.

Certificates of any kind.

Steamship tickets to foreign countries.

Pawnbroking.

Perfumes.

Indemnity and other bonds.

Commercial brokerage.

Custom house brokerage and business.

Broker's memoranda of any kind of sale.

Stock and bond business.

Transfers of stock.

Proxies for voting stock.

Protest of notes and bills.

Champagnes, cordials and liqueurs.

Wines of all sorts.

Vaseline and cold cream.

Hair oil and tooth paste.

Tobacco, cigars, cigarettes and snuff.

Face powders and beautifiers.

Board and trade and exchange transactions.

For the information of those who may not understand why this new tax act was passed: The European war has done much to destroy our foreign trade, particularly importations of manufactured articles, the tariff upon which has heretofore gone far toward supporting the government. The consequent deficit was so large that these special duties, popularly called "war tax," had to be levied to make it up.

RETURN FROM HUNTING TRIP IN SOUTHERN PART OF STATE

Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Milton returned Tuesday from a week's hunting trip in company with Sheriff E. L. Smith and wife of Deland and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Burgess of Beresford.

The party made the expedition in their automobiles, traveling southward through the Kissimmee district to LaBelle and into the prairie lands about 30 miles south of the latter city. They camped and hunted at various places along the way, finding an abundance of quail and also securing a number of turkeys and many fox squirrels.

The ladies of the party, who are also good sportsmen, devoted most of their time to the squirrels, which are much larger than the gray squirrels and coal black in color.

No deer hunting was done by the party as the country south of LaBelle was overrun with hunting parties, some of them from the northern limits of the state.

CONTEST AT NEW DAYTONA FURNISHED LOTS OF FUN

That much advertised tango contest at the New Daytona theatre on Wednesday evening proved one of the greatest features of the kind ever seen here, and the probabilities are that the repetition of the feature on Saturday night will find standing room at a premium. Everybody had a good time last night, especially the official "inviter" and the judges. It was an enjoyable stunt, and everyone had a great big money's worth.

After the regular performance—and the general opinion was that the bill was the best presented so far during the week—the tango contest took place. On invitation from the stage for some local young man to come forward and help pick out the good dancers, P. C. Rodgers broke all speed records on climbing the stage steps. Pete's running mate, Mr. Wilcox, acted as referee, and it was not long until the former had prevailed upon several young men to try their skill. Several young ladies with the big Ches Davis musical comedy act were all good dancers, and for the lovers of this form of amusement the affair was a distinct treat. Although a big laughing feature, the contest was also an artistic success.

The prizes were awarded according to the volume of applause, and the winner of the first prize was Harry Erickson. Alvah Hurd was the second. The prizes were distributed among the three leaders, and the winner of the third expects to have his name in Monday's paper as a winner in the Saturday night contest. The young gentlemen who were Wednesday's winners very courteously divided their spoils with their young lady partners. It was a big night, and tonight a brand new program will be presented. Friday night a feature, new here and as much fun as the tango contest, will be offered, when a country store will follow the regular program. A second tango contest will be staged Saturday night after the regular program.

HOW AMERICAN EDITORS VIEW WAR IN EUROPE

With a view to getting a line on American sympathy in the present war, The Literary Digest recently addressed letters to between 350 and 400 editors in all parts of the country, north, south, east and west, asking their own attitudes and the feelings of their communities toward the warring nations. The result is interesting.

Of the 367 replies, 105 editors report that they favor the Allies, 20 favor the Germans, and 242 are neutral.

Of the pro-Ally editors 34 are in the eastern states, 13 in the central, 47 in the southern, and 11 in the western.

Only one pro-German editor hails from the eastern states, while 10 are from the central, 5 from the southern and 4 from the western group.

The neutral editors number 43 in the eastern states, 112 in the central, 51 in the southern, and 35 in the western.

The feeling of the cities and towns represented is reported as favoring the Allies in 189 cases, for the Germans in 28, and neutral or divided 140.

The pro-Ally cities and towns heard from total 52 in the eastern division, SEABREEZE.

SEABREEZE, Dec. 2. — Reverend Elmer Willis Serl, of Missouri, is coming to serve the Seabreeze Tourist church as pastor for the season. He is expected to arrive about December 7th. This news was conveyed in a letter from W. B. Hatch, of Ypsilanti, Mich., and Seabreeze, to Mrs. J. E. Williams, of North Halifax avenue. Mr. Hatch, who is one of the active workers in the church, expressed the hope that the friends of the little church would be on the ground to do what they could to facilitate Mr. Serl's becoming established, and otherwise co-operating with him in promoting the interest of the church. Mr. Serl's family consists of his wife and a little daughter. The church attendants have been anxious to learn who would succeed Rev. E. J. Ranslow, deceased, who, with his wife, did so much for the upbuilding of the Tourist church, and this item will answer many inquiries from residents and visitors.

In the same communication Mr. Hatch stated that he and his family would be here soon after the 7th.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Varney and Mrs. Varney's mother, Mrs. S. M. Scott, arrived from Detroit, Mich., Sunday to spend the season at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Ralph Wilcox on the Halifax. They came south by train. Mr. Varney shipped his car. Mr. Varney, with the assistance of one or two of his good neighbors, got his boat in the water Monday, and the prospects are that he and his family will lose no time that may be comfortably spent out of doors this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Lanahan, prominent winter residents, arrived Sunday from Hollidaysburg, Pa., and will spend the winter, as usual, at their winter residence on the Halifax, Halifax avenue.

Mrs. Joseph Davis, of Philadelphia, Pa., joined Mr. Davis at the Princess Islena Saturday. They have opened their handsome winter home on Atlantic avenue but will take their meals at the Princess Islena until the Clarendon is opened.

Mrs. McCulloch and daughter, Miss Margaret, were among the Sunday arrivals, and went out to Major Russell's farm, where Mrs. McCulloch will remain until Miss Russell joins her. Miss McCulloch will assist at the Princess Islena as stewardess this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Pierson arrived last week from Newark, N. Y., to again occupy their winter home, Cherokee cottage, on North Halifax avenue. Miss Meda Pierson will join her parents here about the 20th of this month.

Dr. and Mrs. M. V. Young slipped in so quietly that their arrival was not noted last week, and are now comfortably domiciled in their winter cottage on North Atlantic avenue. They spent the summer in their northern home, at Frankfort, Ind., and the fall at Ozone, Tenn., where they have a cottage and property interests. They greatly enjoyed their stay in the Cumberland mountains, which was clothed in the brilliant, frost-touched autumn colors.

the winter in interior Florida, to visit Postmaster Graves and wife on Ocean boulevard, left Monday for Mount Dora. Mrs. Banner is Mr. Graves' mother.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Uehlior are receiving the congratulations of their friends on the acquisition of a beautiful four-passenger phaeton Packard car.

Successful Duck Hunt—

F. G. Stuart of North Grandview avenue, in company with his cousin, Mr. Bonney, of Boston, Mass., had a most successful duck hunt, returning home Thanksgiving morning with 50 ducks and other smaller game. Messrs. Stuart and Bonney cruised as far south as Merritt's Island where they found fine all-round sport. Mrs. Stuart made a generous division with many of her neighbors, who enjoyed a Thanksgiving duck dinner.

Rev. Mr. Rightmire filled the regular appointment at the Seabreeze Baptist Mission on North Peninsula drive Sunday afternoon.

The Missionary and Ladies' Aid society will meet Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Wm. Holmes on North Halifax avenue.

A dozen or more large luscious apples came to the scribe by parcel post from faraway Maine, as a Thanksgiving reminder of Mrs. H. L. Kochersperger. The accompanying card read: "Bangor, Me. These apples are from my farm." They were delicious in flavor and perfect in coloring.

The friends of Major Russell will be glad to learn that he is getting well after a hard attack of asthma, from which he was a great sufferer for a couple of weeks or more. The Major says it is hard to kill an old Southern veteran.

Max Wetherby and Roy Holland motored up to St. Augustine in the Holland car Saturday to visit the deaf mute State Institution, expecting to be gone a couple of days.

Mrs. S. B. Gantz of North Halifax avenue, received a barrel of wine-sap apples from her daughter, Mrs. Allwood of Charlottesville, Va., the past few days. Mrs. Allwood spent last summer here with her mother, and the friends she made during her stay will be pleased to know that her summer south benefited her health very much. The apples came in fine condition and are being enjoyed by Mrs. Gantz and several neighbors and friends, with whom she divided liberally.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Wilson, who have been occupying what is known as the McNutt place, bought last year by Col. T. F. Cordis, moved this week to the Sunbonnet cottage south of Earl street.

Mrs. A. G. Blackman spent a week with her son, Mr. and Mrs. Viall, at Eustis, where she was joined on Thanksgiving day by her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Randall, with whom she makes her home. The party returned home last Saturday, making the trip by automobile.

Miss Knap and Miss Payne, who have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Randall, on North Atlantic avenue, left Monday on their return to Eustis.

Mrs. Henry Ainsworth will arrive this week from Moline, Ill., to spend the winter at her beach residence.

ALLANDALE.

ALLANDALE, Dec. 1. — A very pleasant dinner was served at Ye Inn on Thanksgiving day to a small party invited by the Christians, including Mrs. J. H. C. Howes, D. W. Haddell and the Rikenans. A fine dinner was served and an auto ride to New Smyrna finished what was a very pleasant day.

W. R. Baker and wife have arrived and paid Allandale a visit on Saturday and took lunch at Ye Inn. They were much pleased and surprised at the improvements made during the summer. It is to be hoped that they will soon occupy their bungalow on the river side.

Mrs. W. Lesel, of New York, who spent last winter with A. O. Hicks' family, writes that she will again be here with her sister, Mrs. B. Schwarz, to spend the season. They are contemplating buying and building a winter home here.

H. S. Miller with a party of friends from Daytona, came down on Sunday and spent the afternoon with the Rucks.

D. W. Haddell spent Wednesday evening and Thanksgiving day with the Christians.

The Five Hundred Club met at Magnolia Lodge with the Rikenans this week.

F. O. Sparkman had a gang clearing off the underbrush from the edge of the shell to the property line along both sides of Ridgewood avenue.

The Rev. J. E. Oates and family are looking forward to an extended visit from Dr. Fredericks and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon who are now visiting in Daytona.

Fishing along the river front here is fine now. Capt. John Pusk made a fine catch last week of eight bass and Uncle Al Hicks two fine trout. The warm weather has brought the fish back to the feeding grounds on the oyster beds.

The Good Times club of Port Orange held a picnic at the Rikenans on Tuesday. About thirty attended and enjoyed the usual Good Times eating. Tables were set out under the orange trees and this being one of the times when gentlemen are invited to meet with the club they were there with bells on. Does it not speak well for the climate of the East Coast—December 1st and holding a picnic? Who would not come where this can be done?

Work on the club house is being rushed, the full force of carpenters and rock masons are at work here and they should finish up within the next ten days or two weeks.

Fault is Man's

Nature does nothing without a purpose. When she endowed the rabbit with a gift of co-scientism, a bent toward conspiracy and stratagem, it was a hint to man to come to terms with the rabbit and turn its powers to account. It is man's own fault when the rabbit develops militant tendencies and employs its peculiar talents to work him embarrassment.
